Boy Hi! How are you?

Girl Not great.

B Oh, dear.

G Can I ask your advice about something?

B Yes, of course. What is it?

G Well, I'm really angry with my brother. He never helps with the housework at home.

B Oh, dear!

G So I have to do more housework.

B That's not fair.

G So what should I do? When I talk to him, he just laughs.

B You should talk to your parents.

G Really?

B Yes. Tell them how you feel.

G You're right. Thanks.

Girl Hi! How are you?

Boy I'm OK. But I'm worried about the school show.

G Oh, dear. Why?

B Because I don't know my words! And the show is next week!

G You should learn them!

B I can't learn them. My memory isn't very good.

G I know. You should practise your words with me.

B What do you mean?

G You should say your words to me. And I can do all the other parts.

B Yes, that's a good idea. Thanks very much!

G No problem. Let's start today, after school!

Boy Hello! Are you OK?

Girl Not really.

B What's the problem?

G I'm not in the school volleyball team this year.

B Oh, no!

G I'm really sad about it. I'm usually the captain!

B So why aren't you in the team?

G I don't know. Perhaps the new sports teacher doesn't like me.

B I think you should talk to her.

G Really? Are you sure?

B Yes. Perhaps it's a mistake.

G Yes, that's possible. Hey, thanks.
